New Website Development

- ▶ Development of a new PBPlanning.org website is currently under way, maintenance of legacy website is on hold.
- ▶ Development of new site is being conducted on the Legacy host at <http://new.pbplanning.org/>
- ▶ Temporary site Option 1: Basic functionality has been included in the new website to allow for active posting of current content by the board.
- ▶ Roles will be created allowing access to be granted to all board members which would allow them to update the Temporary Basic Pages while the new site UI is being developed and tested.
- ▶ Temporary site Option 2: Utilizing the current WP site, will add basic pages to be used for board member posting of their own content. Will use that content in the development of the new site.

Electronic Media

New Website Development

- ▶ Near Term Next Steps / Temporary site:
  - Utilize Temporary Pages to capture current content required to provide public information to necessary stakeholders (in Legacy or New CMS)
  - Add board members to site users.
  - Load all existing content required from the Legacy Site to the temp. site pages
  - Redirect from Legacy site to New Site (only required in Option 1)
  - Develop update policy and protocols to ensure content is being maintained and updated in a timely manner in a consistent format.

Electronic Media

New Website Development

- ▶ Next Steps / Advanced Site Development:
  - Continue development of advanced site UI.
  - Pages will be based on Temporary site page requirements along with new content requirements requested by the board.
  - Develop User Interface Controls that will allow for role based access which will create a simple and consistent user experience.
  - Develop Calendar Widget
  - Collect new content from the board i.e Bio's, images, subcommittee info, calendar info.
  - Develop User Guides for each class of user:

About Us

The Pacific Beach Planning Group is recognized by the City Council to make recommendations to the City Council, Planning Commission, City Staff, and other governmental agencies on land use matters, specifically, concerning the preparation of, adoption of, implementation of, or amendment to, the General Plan or a land use plan when a plan relates within the planning group's area boundaries. The PB Planning Group also advises on other land use matters as requested by the City or other governmental agencies. The City does not delegate legal authority to planning groups to take actions on behalf of the City. Planning groups are voluntarily created and maintained by members of the community within the City. The PB Planning Group operates in accordance with our Bylaws .

Meetings are held at the Taylor Library in PB on the 4th Wednesday of each month at 6:30pm. (Unless otherwise noted.)
